An excited crowd looks on as Marty Metzger, Rob Loar, and Scot Burbacher prepare to lead the stadium in trumpet cheers.

TRADITION!

. . . A word that means something to each and every student at Northland High School. Since the day the doors opened, building up and preserving tradition has been our ultimate goal. But, what is Northland's tradition? In one word . . . VIKINGS!

We built onto ancient myths and created our own Gods. They were mythical gods with green and gold fingers, whose very touch seemed to swallow us up in a dream. That dream has influenced our thinking. We are no longer mere students. We are Vikings, upholding our tradition!

Senior Dave Conley drops back to pass.

Due to unusual weather conditions, many sophomore gym classes were forced to play indoors.

Junior cheerleader Kelly Russel, helped arouse student enthusiasm by hanging spirit signs.

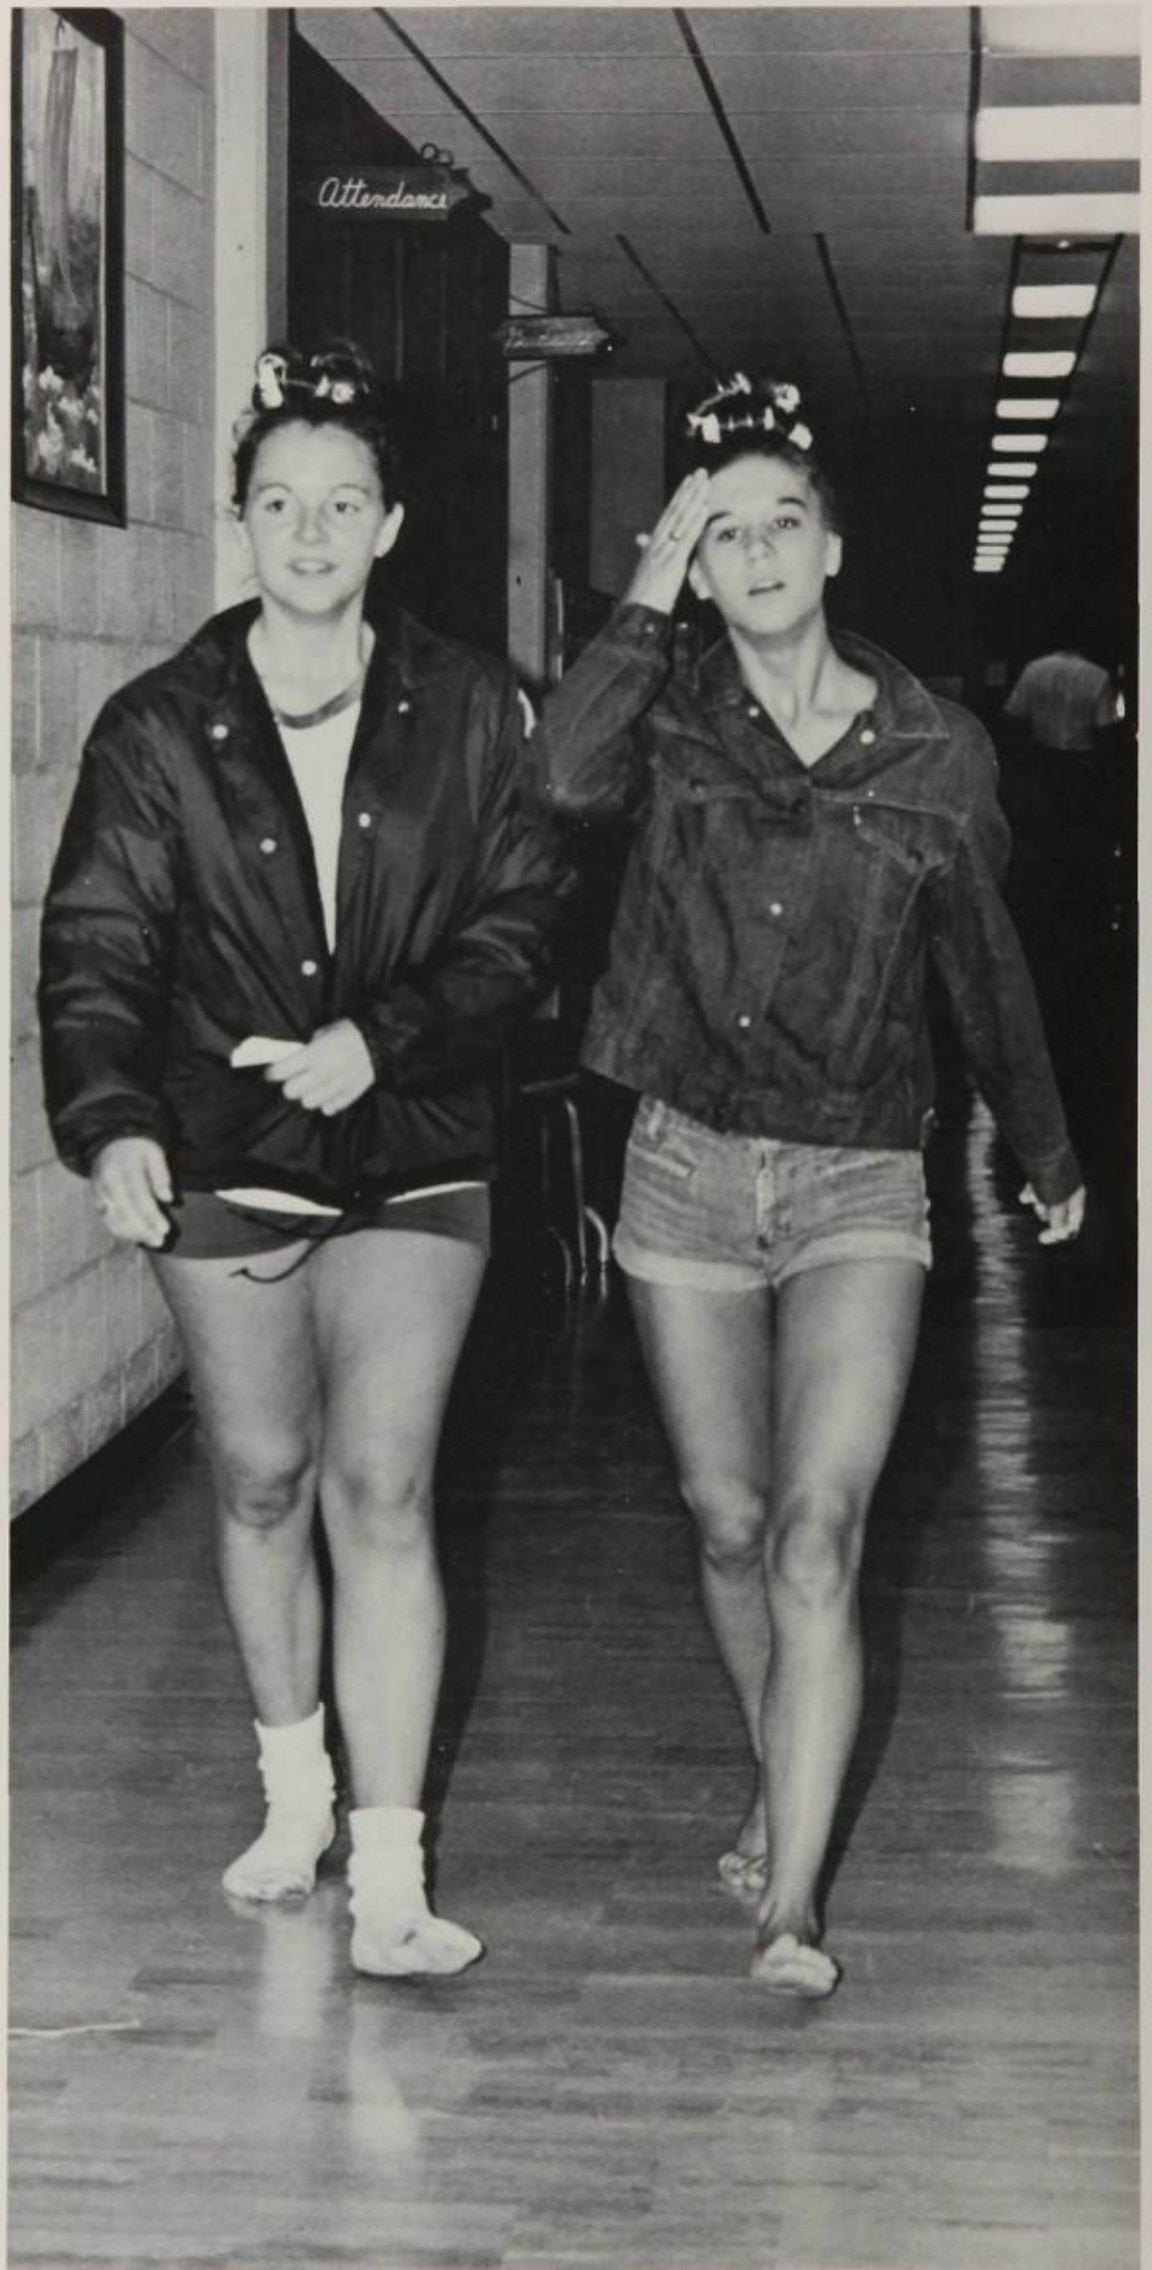

WITH A TOUCH OF TOMORROW

. . . Then we think, We will not close our eyes to the future. We cannot survive on our dreams. Our alternative leads us to building onto those dreams. Making dreams turn into realities usually results for the Vikings of Northland High School.

Through the process of turning dreams into realities, the phrase, "Tradition with a touch of tomorrow" seems to describe us quite well. When a Viking football player goes into the game, he does not dream of years gone past, when Northland has captured the City Crown. What he does do, is build onto that dream by making it a reality this year.

Senior Margaret Garbrant takes time out from her busy schedule to make an important phone call.

Senior Valkyries Christy Power and Beth Madachy head for the restroom after an early morning rehearsal.

RELIVING THE PAST

Something we are proud to do because we have something to be proud of. Each year, the Vikings work to assure that students in years to come, can look back and beam with pride.

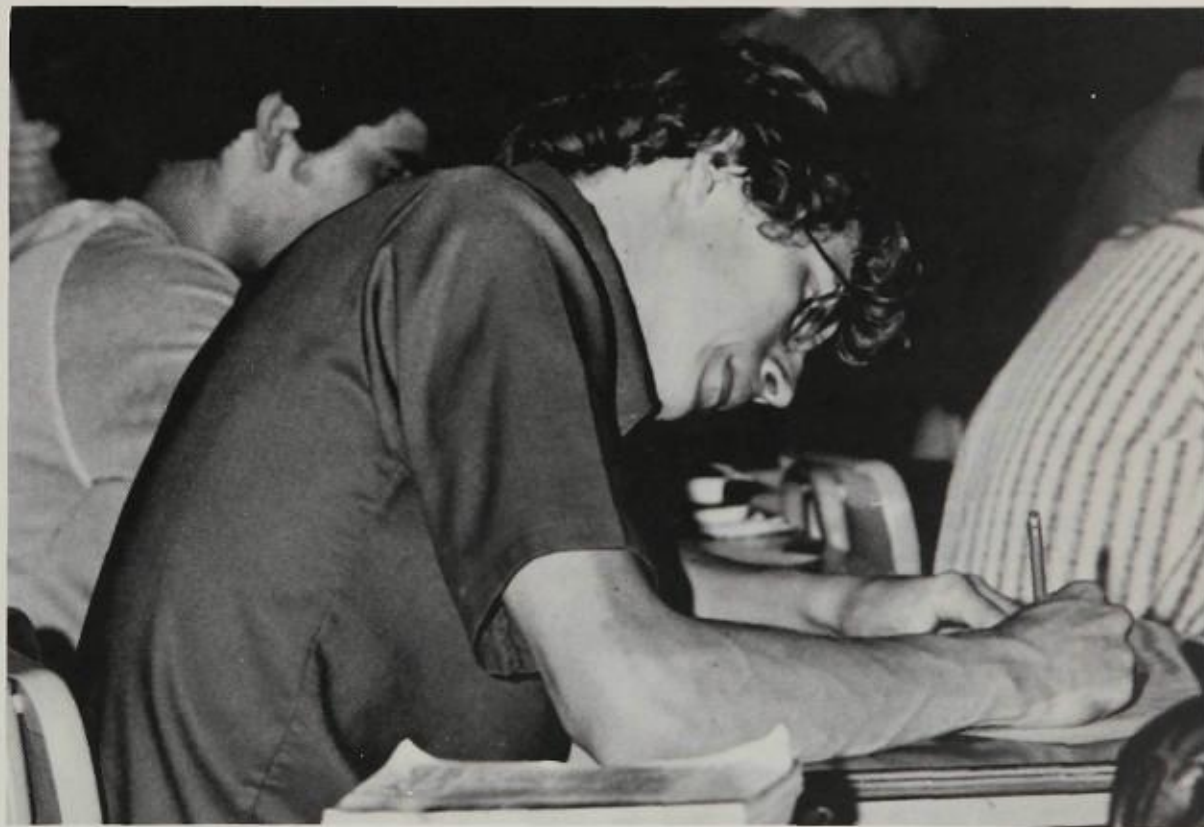

Some of our accomplishments, which are considerable for a younger school such as ours, include two football crowns, outstanding scholarly achievements, superior ratings for musical groups, special recognitions for our cheerleaders and drill team members, and the list goes on. The past holds a special corridor in the hallways of our memories!

Senior Dave Thomas takes advantage of the conveniently located bike racks.

The library provides the right setting for the concentration needed by these two chess players.

EXPERIENCING THE FUTURE

. . . As Northland swings into its eighth year, anticipation of the future is with great expectation. As time progresses, contests will come and go, conflicts will arise and be solved, campaigns will be sponsored, and activities will be held. Then comes graduation, and we will all look back. What was the result?

Another totally unique year with memories that can only be remembered as 1974. But then, parallels are drawn, and we see that we have upheld our tradition. It is something that is sometimes unattainable, but yet, it is always within our reach.

Senior Kim Hall waits for Mr. Rabold to discuss future career plans.

Junior Karen Johnson finds that the stairs to the girl's locker room is a quiet place to study.

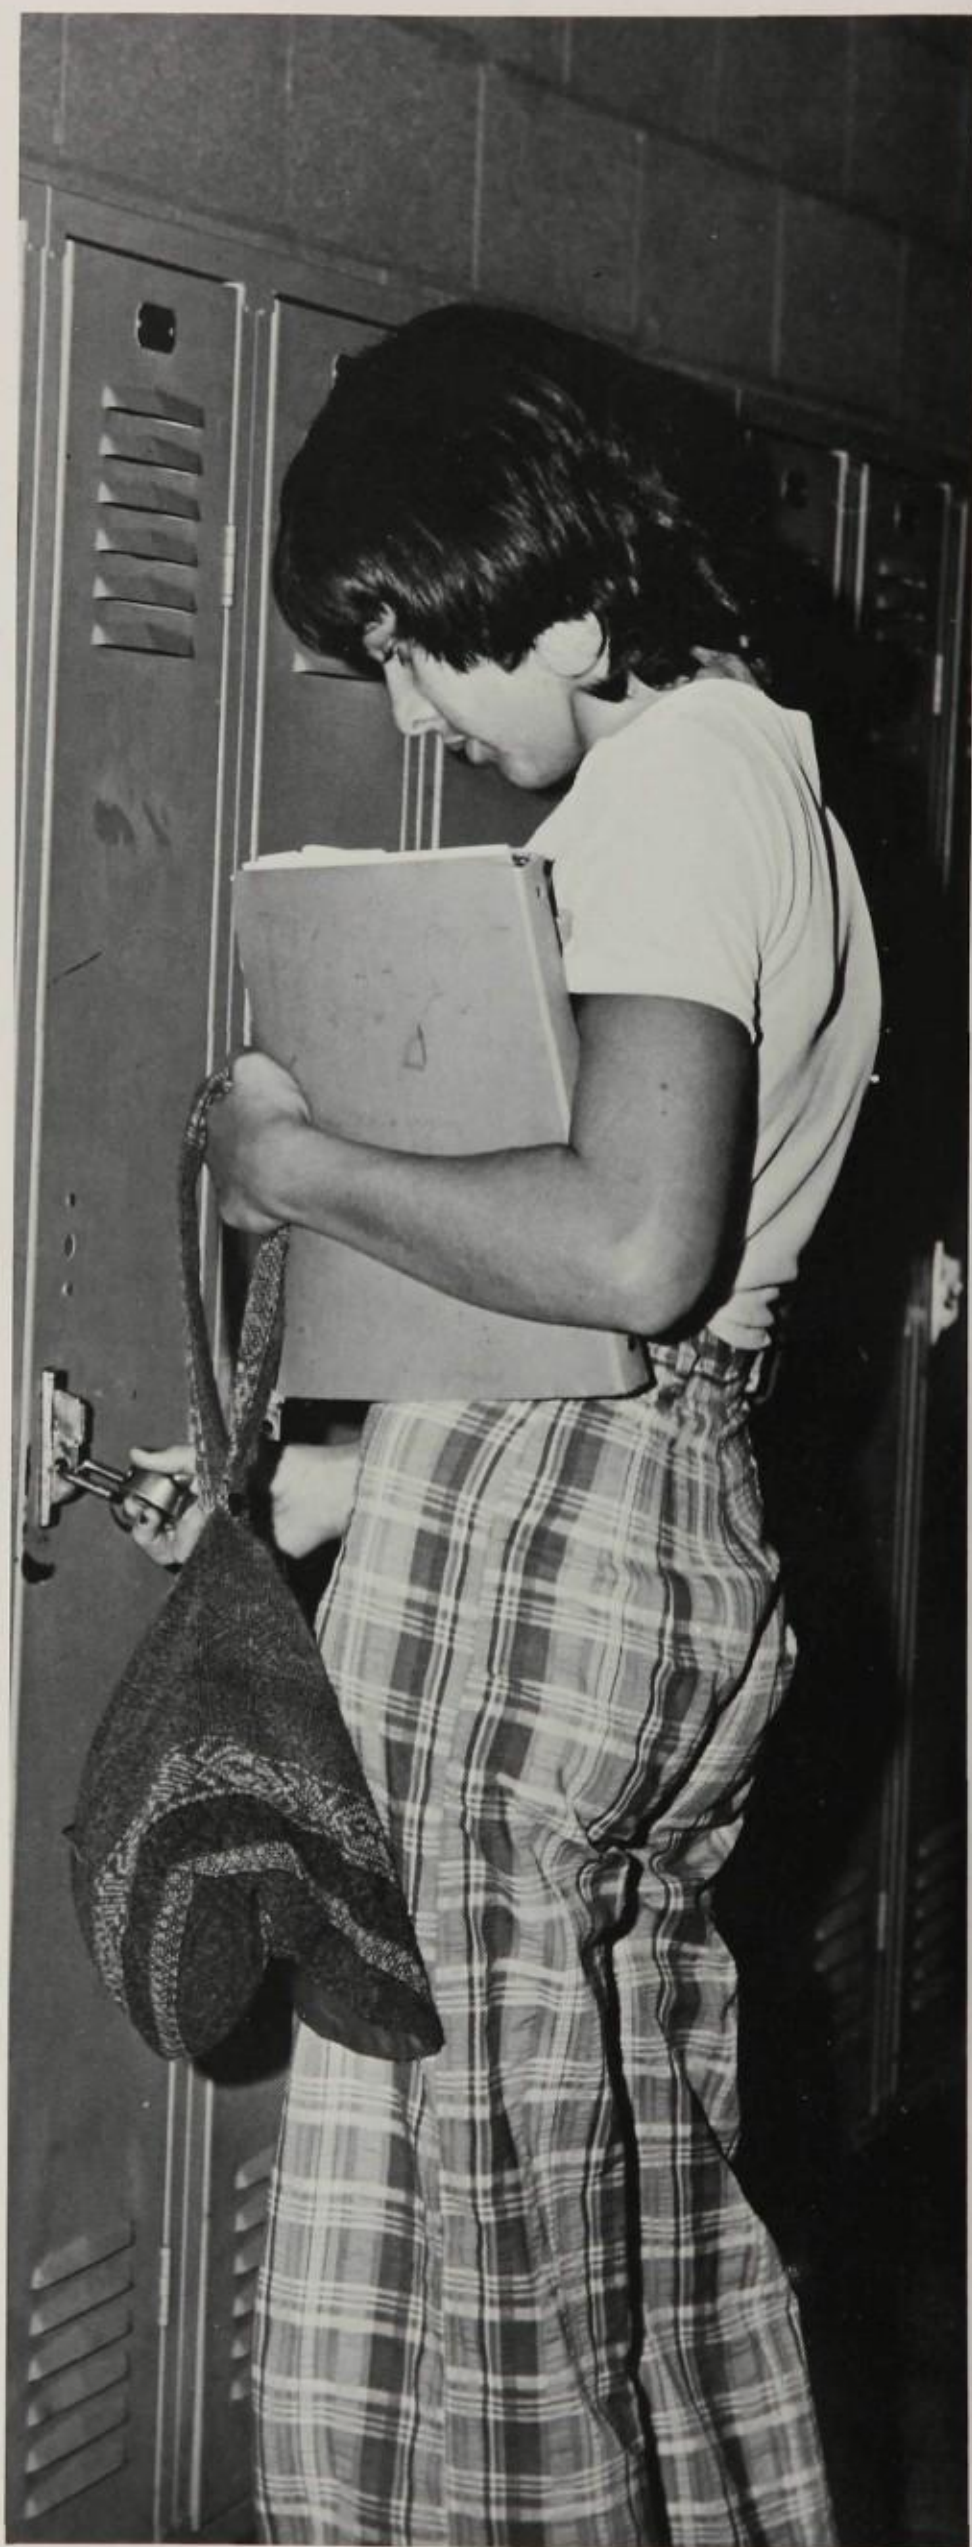

Above — Scenes from the Vikings' first half-time show.

Mr. Zaayer demonstrates the correct posture when standing at attention.

Going to your locker plays an important part of the beginning of each day.

Senior Jim Toney glances back to see if he is still the last one in line.

Linda Ledford really means it when she says "Ain't no way you can beat the Vikings."

EACH NEW DAY

. . . Also holds a special place in our dreams. The excitement of looking forward to the end of the week when we can go to the football game, the anticipation of the Spring play, and of course the prayers and hopes we have for a good report card. The reactions vary with each person, but we all find something rewarding with each new day that comes.

BROADENING OUR HORIZONS

. . . One of the strongest and most enduring of any of our traditions. That is the fundamental reason for coming to school. We strive to achieve success in our academic work as well as our extra-curricular activities. The hope is the same in each of us. That is to expand our future and increase our opportunities for our lives in the world. Without even trying we enrich our memories by broadening our horizons.

The cheerful smiles of Mrs. Buelow and Mrs. Weeks helped brighten up the first few days of school.

Molly Booker goes through her No. 1 routine; correcting errors.

Northland students relax on the front lawn

Senior Mark Barr takes a last minute look at notes before taking a test.

Mr. Evans discusses football strategy with former Northland Music Director Robert Weimer.

KEEPING IN MIND

Never forgetting our ultimate goal which is to uphold our tradition and to turn our dreams into realities. A school that lives in the past, without experiencing the future will not broaden its horizons nor can it be rewarded as each new day comes and goes. But a school that is working to assure that generations from now new students can beam with the same pride as we did, will be the school that is looked upon as the school that has during a free period.

Mixed emotions are expressed after Northland's first loss.

THE FINAL PLATEAU

. . . Being a senior is the last stage of high school. Once this year is over, lives will be changed. This year of tradition is looked upon in two different ways. In a way, the anticipation of being on top is something that is well worth the wait. In another way, the regret of leaving the school that has been "home" seems to dampen the glory. But all in all, the Senior Class of '74 is carrying on the traditions that will last forever.

The Valkyries Drill Team performs to "Hang On Sloopy," as some fans look on.

THE END OF THE LINE

. . . So, the list of seniors ends, but their saga goes on. The traditions started and carried on by the Class of '74 will be the goals of classes to come. The year of activities that has just past, will be remembered by all and forgotten by none, for the Class of '74 has become another chapter in the history of Northland High School.

Action describes this key play in the game with North.

Senior Barney Houchins helps lead the homecoming crowd while dressed as a superior Viking warrior.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES AROUSE VIKING SPIRIT

The traditional '74 was lit during the homecoming halftime show beneath the Viking tree.

ACTIVITIES PEAK, OCT. 13

A whole month of homecoming activities climaxed on Saturday night, October 13. First, the girls signed up and the senior class voted for the top ten. The winners were posted and the whole school proceeded to vote for the court. Jody Melick (pictured with escort Joe Mayhew), Jeannie Serio (pictured with escort Steve Wenger), Shelly Farber (pictured with escort Tim Shegog), Jackie Hilt (pictured with escort Garth Nutter) and Shauna Towler (pictured with escort Dan Birkel) were the lucky five. Then came homecoming speeches, pep rallies, voting, and finally, Friday night arrived.

HOMECOMING . . . '74

Northland faced City League rival, North, and won in an exciting contest 24-0. During the halftime show, the new queen was announced, the band performed Script Viking, and the crowd cheered with approval. On Saturday night, "Reflections" greeted couples, as the theme of the homecoming dance. 1973 Homecoming Queen, Kathy Janzen crowned Queen Shauna. Couples danced to the sounds of Whetstone's Dance Band. The tradition was seen through; the annual event had been completed. All that was left were memories and anticipation . . . to do it all over again.

The scoreboard tells the story with one second left to play in the game against North.

The cheerleaders held a sign contest and this one won first place.

SENIOR CONVENTION ELECTS OFFICERS

The Senior Convention highlighted a week of campaign speeches, posters, and healthy rivalry. Going into the race were two candidates for each office. They were, Joe Mayhew and John Payne, President, Scot Burbacher and Karen Beale, Vice-President, Cindy Sears and Carolyn Carte, Treasurer, Rose Headington and Jody Melick, Secretary, and Jeff Brader and Marty Metzker, Sergeant at Arms. The winners were elected as each homeroom cast their votes during the convention. Confetti, Toilet paper, and signs all kept the Senior Convention in the lines of tradition for the Seniors of '74!

SENIOR OFFICERS — Scot Burbacher, Rose Headington, Joe Mayhew, Cindy Sears, and Jeff Brader.

Rose Headington is thrown up on the stage as her name is read as the new Senior Class Secretary.

Throwing toilet paper from the balcony seemed to be one of the more popular activities at the convention.

Our great President even showed up to give his support for Eddy Eddy.

Mixed emotions are displayed as each winner was announced.

VIKES FALL TO RIDGE

The football Vikings at Northland went into their heavy football schedule as the defending City League Champions; a tradition that they aimed to keep! With a long list of returning seniors the Vikings had a capable and experienced squad. After some disappointing non-league games, Northland's team, under Coach Frank Howe, came back to remain undefeated in league play, having a mere 22 points scored by opponents in six games. Northland and Walnut Ridge again went into the Championship battle between the North and the South. Our team, seeking a second crown, their team, seeking revenge. The Vikings put up a tremendous fight but were overcome by a score of 21-14.

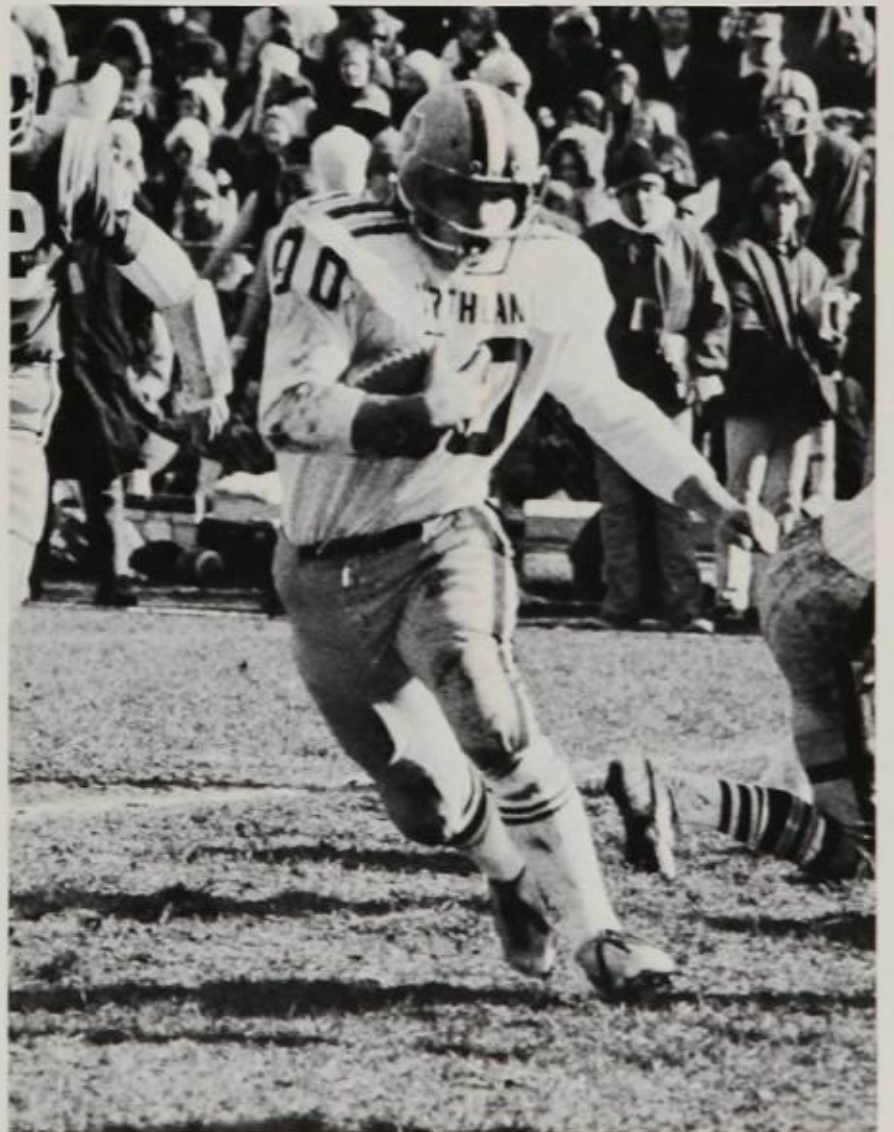

The Northland Coaching Staff, Mr. Rittenhouse, Mr. Howe, and Mr. Deyo, discuss strategies at the Championship Game with Walnut Ridge.

Don Welle (34) makes the block as John Giroux (36) carries the ball.

Junior Frank Palmiero (00) out-maneuvers the Walnut Ridge defense.

NORTHLAND TAKES CITY

Viking fans were not at all disappointed this year as the 1973-74 Cagers won the City League Co-Championship. Leading scorer Jud Wood led eight other seniors to a much improved season, 12-5 overall, and 10-3 in the league. The City League race was a hot one right down to the wire as the lead was shared by at least two schools throughout the season. Highlighting this year's action were the whomping victories over co-leaders Mohawk and Eastmoor. Congratulations, Vikings on ANOTHER job well done!

WRESTLING GAINS SUPPORT

Each year talented performers come and go in each aspect of sports. It seems that Wrestling has finally come into its limelight. Spirited crowds helped cheer the Viking wrestlers on to victory, and were consoling in times of defeat. This kind of support is the kind of tradition worth keeping.

The Vikings have had some good years in the past but none as memorable as the one just past. Not only did Northland win the North Division Title in Football, the City League Co-Championship in Basketball, 2nd place in the City Cross Country Loop, but this year's Viking Wrestlers placed 2nd in the City Meet. Junior Varsity took first place for the fourth consecutive year. Individual honors were also high for Northland's athletes. These are the kinds of traditions that Northland fans hope are kept up in the years to come.

Mike Byrd finds himself in a bind as this West wrestler takes advantage of the situation.

Steve Wenger pins his opponent from West.

VIKINGS WORTHY OF PRAISE

Another Viking score seems inevitable.

Exhausted after a strenuous bout, this Viking Wrestler takes a breather.

Each wrestler hopes that his match will end with a pin.

FACULTY . . . 74

HARD WORK APPRECIATED

Each year at Northland High School a level of teaching excellence has been maintained . . . and 1974 has been no different. Few people realize the preparation, the time, the effort, and the patience that goes into teaching a classroom of demanding Senior High School youth. So, to the faculty, we the student body say "Thank You" for renewing a tradition that is much appreciated.

VOICES HEARD

Students have always needed a way to voice their opinions in matters which concern them. Student Council has been the traditional way. This year, as in years past, each homeroom has elected students to get in on the policy making processes at the school. An equal number of representatives from each grade has kept decisions balanced. A new innovation this year for members of Student Council has been the active exchange program in which members from our council visit other schools in an attempt to better understand the problems that confront us each day. President this year was Patti Jones.

WORK LOAD EASED

Each year, a new crew has to be trained to do almost an infinite number of jobs around the school. The work is not always easy and surprisingly enough, there are always students ready to lend a hand. The Main Office, the Guidance department, the Attendance office, the Library, the Cafeteria, the Stage, and the Audio-Visual department all train assistants to perform the various tasks required from each department. The helpers are all volunteers and the work they do is a great load taken from the shoulders of those staff members involved.

ATTENDANCE HELPERS — Lori Wirt, Cindy Scott, Tom Hingst, Tammi Hunt, Raelene Gilmore.

What is Mrs. Wiget always laughing about?

FOREIGN CUSTOMS STRESSED

One of the nice things about foreign language clubs at Northland is that to be a member, a person does not have to be a member of the particular language class. In these clubs, French, German, and Spanish, foreign customs are studied to give members an idea of just exactly how, for example, a Spanish person might live. Several trips were planned for members of these clubs during 1974. For French students, Canada, and for German students, Germany!

LATIN STUDENTS PROUD

LATIN students had a good reason to be proud this year, as Northland High School won the award for the best Latin School Program in the state of Ohio. The Latin Club is the largest of all language clubs this year. Each year, they sponsor a Banquet at which all Latin students are served according to the level of Latin they are taking in class.

LATIN ADVANCED PLACEMENT — Jim Yoakum, Jenny Farquhar, Marty Metzker, Mrs. White.

The award for the most outstanding Latin program in Ohio went to Northland this year.

LATIN CLUB — (Row 1) Mrs. White, Eric Buskirk, Craig Fela, Gary Burton, Tracy Hoag, Rose Agresti, Laurie O'Neil, Mitch Spiro, Barb Watson, Alan Veatch, Cindy Paulos. CREATIVE WRITING CLUB — Patti Jones, Bill Carty, Lori Ariss.

VIKING VOLUNTEERS — Mrs. Hutchins, Nancy Chadwell, Marna Ritts, Par Jody Parker.

The basic classroom is not always the best atmosphere for writing "creatively."

MAGAZINE IS YEARLY PROJECT.

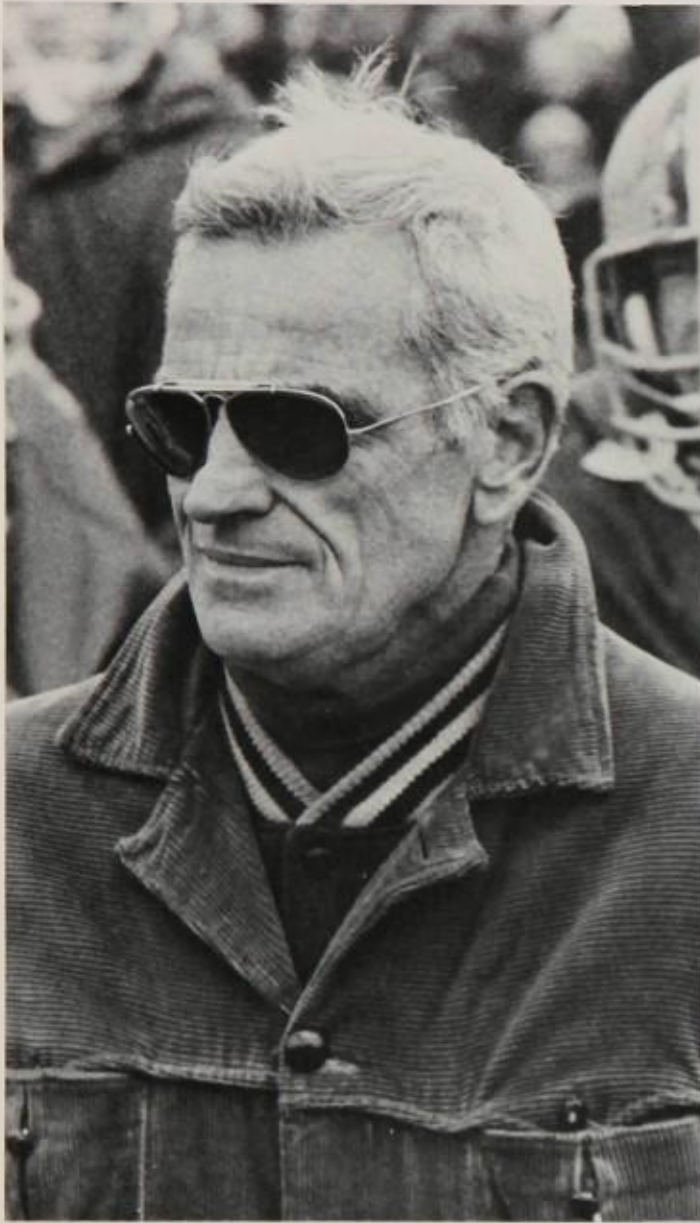

Each year, the Creative Writing Club, advised by Mrs. Plummer, is responsible for producing a Literary Magazine entitled "Inner Weather." The magazine is made up of poems, short stories, and photographs all contributed by students from Northland High School. Three clubs are in charge of putting the magazine together, Art Club, Camera Club, and the Creative Writing Club. Editor for "Inner Weather" this year is Patti Jones.

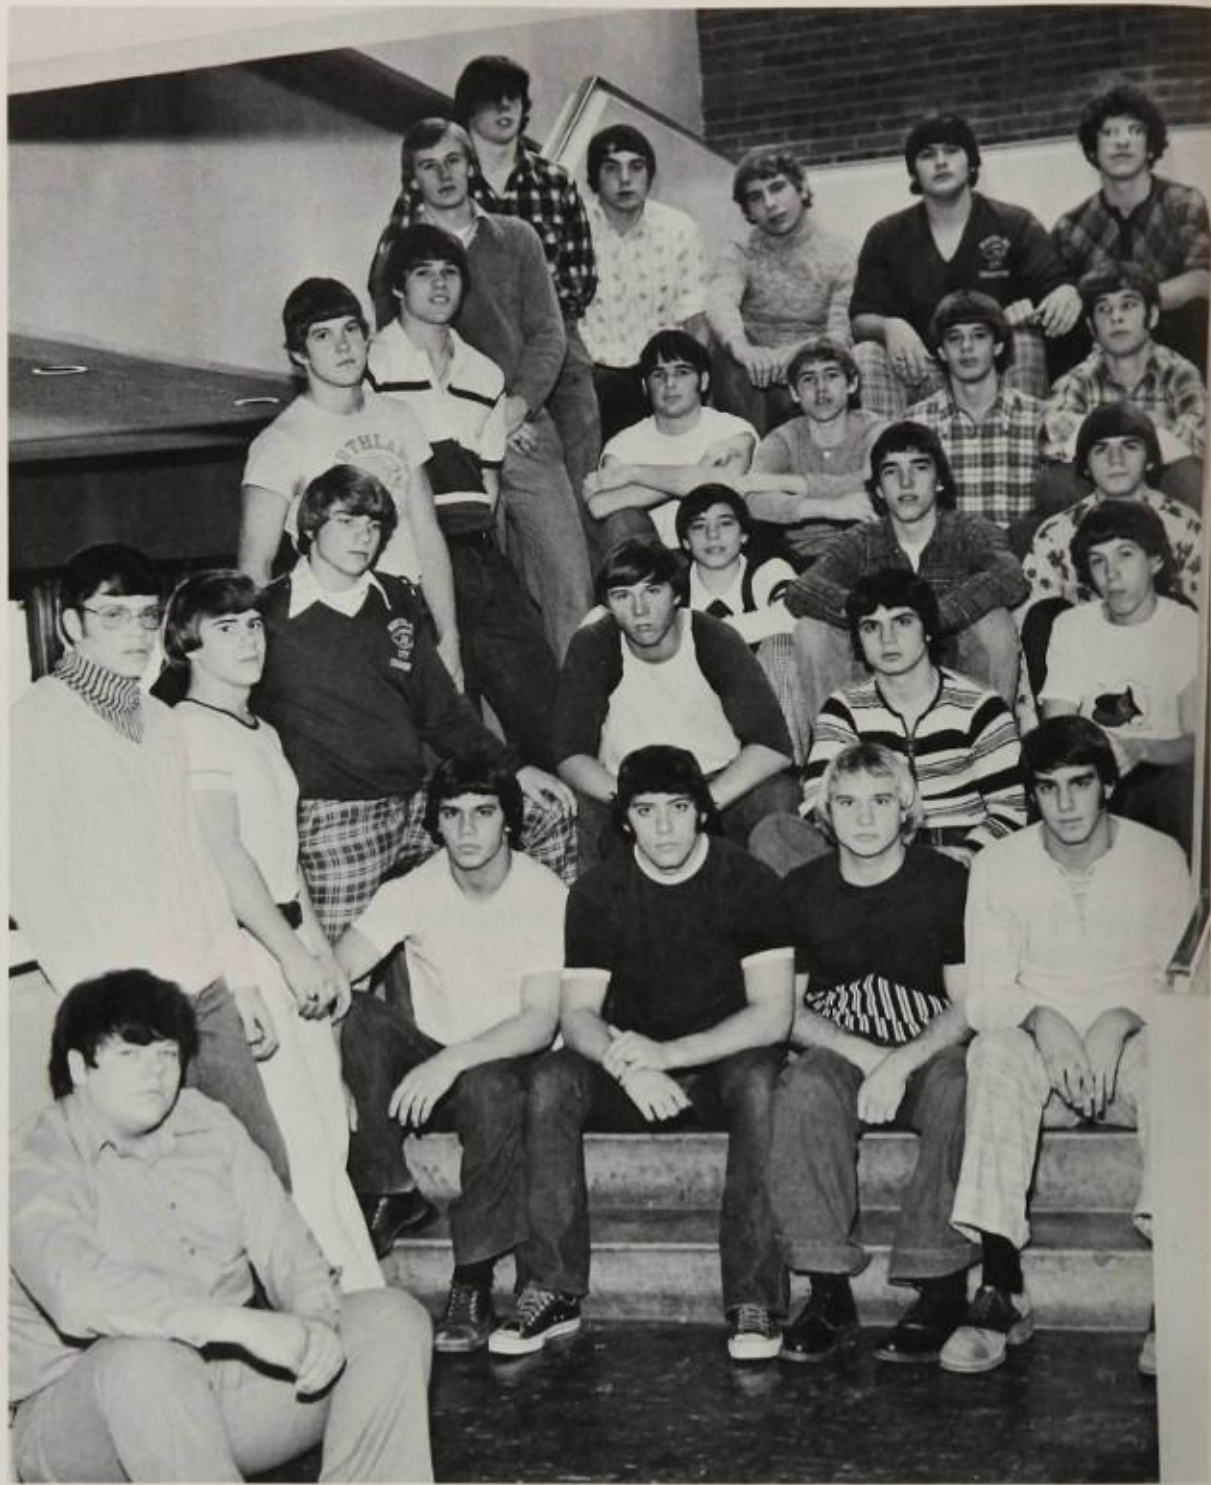

DeLille, Donna Pfaff, John O'Neil, John Martz, Diane Stevens,

Junior Charlie Lausch, with great skill, tosses his creative writing into the wind.

The table in the lobby seems to make a better homeroom for these young men, than their assigned rooms.

ZAAZER'S BAD GUYS

Zaayer's Bad Guys, or the ZBG's sponsored a tape sale this year, the profits from which went to the club treasury. The group also runs errands and tells Mr. Zaayer what to do. On senior government day, Brian Gibson became Mr. Z for a day, and although most people thought it was all Brian, an undercover source has reported that the extra weight was actually a pillow.

Northland didn't always come out on top in pile-ups such as this.

Which one will get credit for this score?

Z.B.G.'s — (Row 1) Dan Aldridge, Bill Birkel, Bill Kidwell, Fred Glaze, Dale Radcliff, Gary Adams, Chuck Parrish. (Row 2) Mike Scurria, Brian Gibson, Jim Abbruzzese, Dan Scurria, Larry Hagman, Tim Mahoney, Mark Carr. IN-THE-KNOW

The In-The-Know team, sponsored by Mr. Terrence Schrieber and Miss Carolyn Herrel, did not do as well as they did last year, by losing their first round to Delaware-Hayes. The game was close, however, as Northland lost by a mere five points.

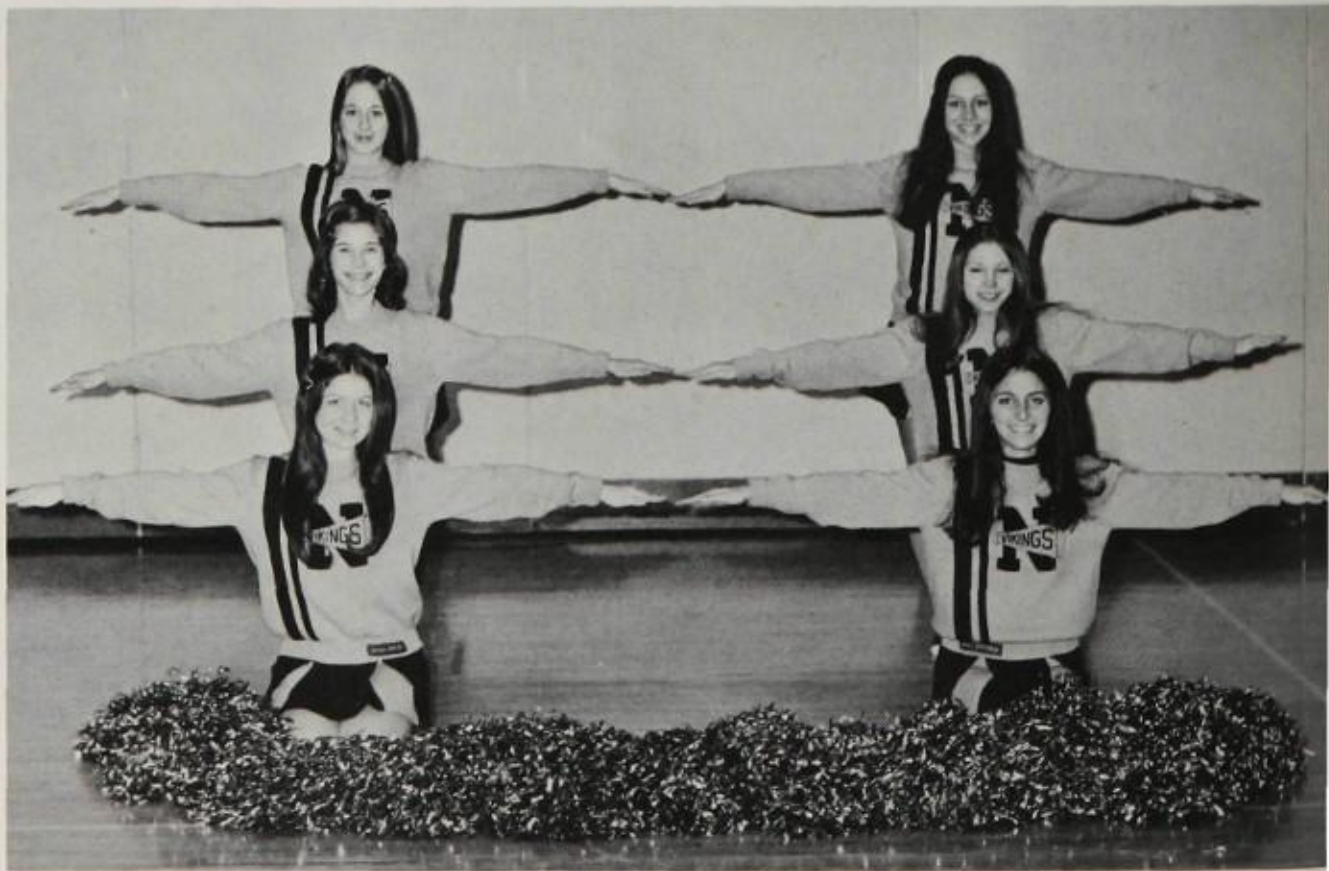

Junior Kerry Huba is compelled to ask about the "Gorgon Sisters."

VARSITY FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS — (Row 1) Natalie Saggio, Jody Melick, Kelley Russell. (Row 2) Linda Ledford, Carol Cantrell, Nancy Chadwell.

 Leroy Joel Johanson
 Miss Fern Jody Daulton
 Reginald Tasker Michael Perkins
 Mrs. Daigle Nancy Shelton
 Mr. Daigle Barney Houchins
 Richard Bravo Dwight Yoakum

Christine comforts her father as she tells him his granddaughter is a murderess.

Christine struggles to get the truth from her daughter Rhoda.

Monica and brother Emery listen on as

Mr. Daigle tries to restrain Mrs. Daigle as she takes the grief of her son's death out on Miss Fern.

Christine kisses her husband good-bye as he leaves for a business trip.

The fall play "The Bad Seed" was presented in the auditorium on November 10 and 11. The story is of a psychotic little girl who commits three murders and lives so that she can commit more whenever they may be convenient. Written with reserve and skill . . . "The Bad Seed" is an extraordinarily literate horror story and a superior bit of theatre. Little Rhoda Penmark is the evil queen of the story. On the surface, she is sweet, charming, full of old-fashioned graces, loved by her parents, admired by all her elders. But Rhoda's mother has an uneasy feeling about her. When one of Rhoda's schoolmates is mysteriously drowned at a picnic, Mrs. Penmark is alarmed. For the boy who was drowned was the one who had won the penmanship medal that Rhoda felt she deserved. It involves a mysterious murder, farther back in Rhoda's infamous career, and a gruesome murder later on when she fears that she is being trapped.

Monica protects Rhoda from Mrs. Daigle's sudden anger.

Christine and Reginald discuss his new mystery

Leroy accuses Rhoda of the murder of the Daigle boy.

Rhoda watches on as Monica slaps Christine back to sense.

RUMPELSTILTSKIN

The Children's play this year was "Rumpelstiltskin," which was presented in three showings January 12. The play written by Director Charles Lewis' wife Jean was a huge success. Later in the spring the play was taken on tour to various elementary schools in the area. Those participating in the cast were: Patti Jones — Millicent, Jack Drudy — Miller, Jeff Powers — Prime Minister, Jeff Smalley — King, Nancy Shelton — Hairyyette, Cindy Finnicum — Rotunda, Gretchen Herr — Twerpsickoree, and Mitch Spiro — Rumpelstiltskin. The members of the chorus were: Barney Houtchins, Joel Johanson, Rob Stout, Cindy Black, Jody Daulton, Debbie Erickson, Mickey Hopper, Susy Laird, Jeanne Titus, and Barb Watson.

Rumpelstiltskin (Mitch Spiro) shows his deep concentration as he spins straw into gold.

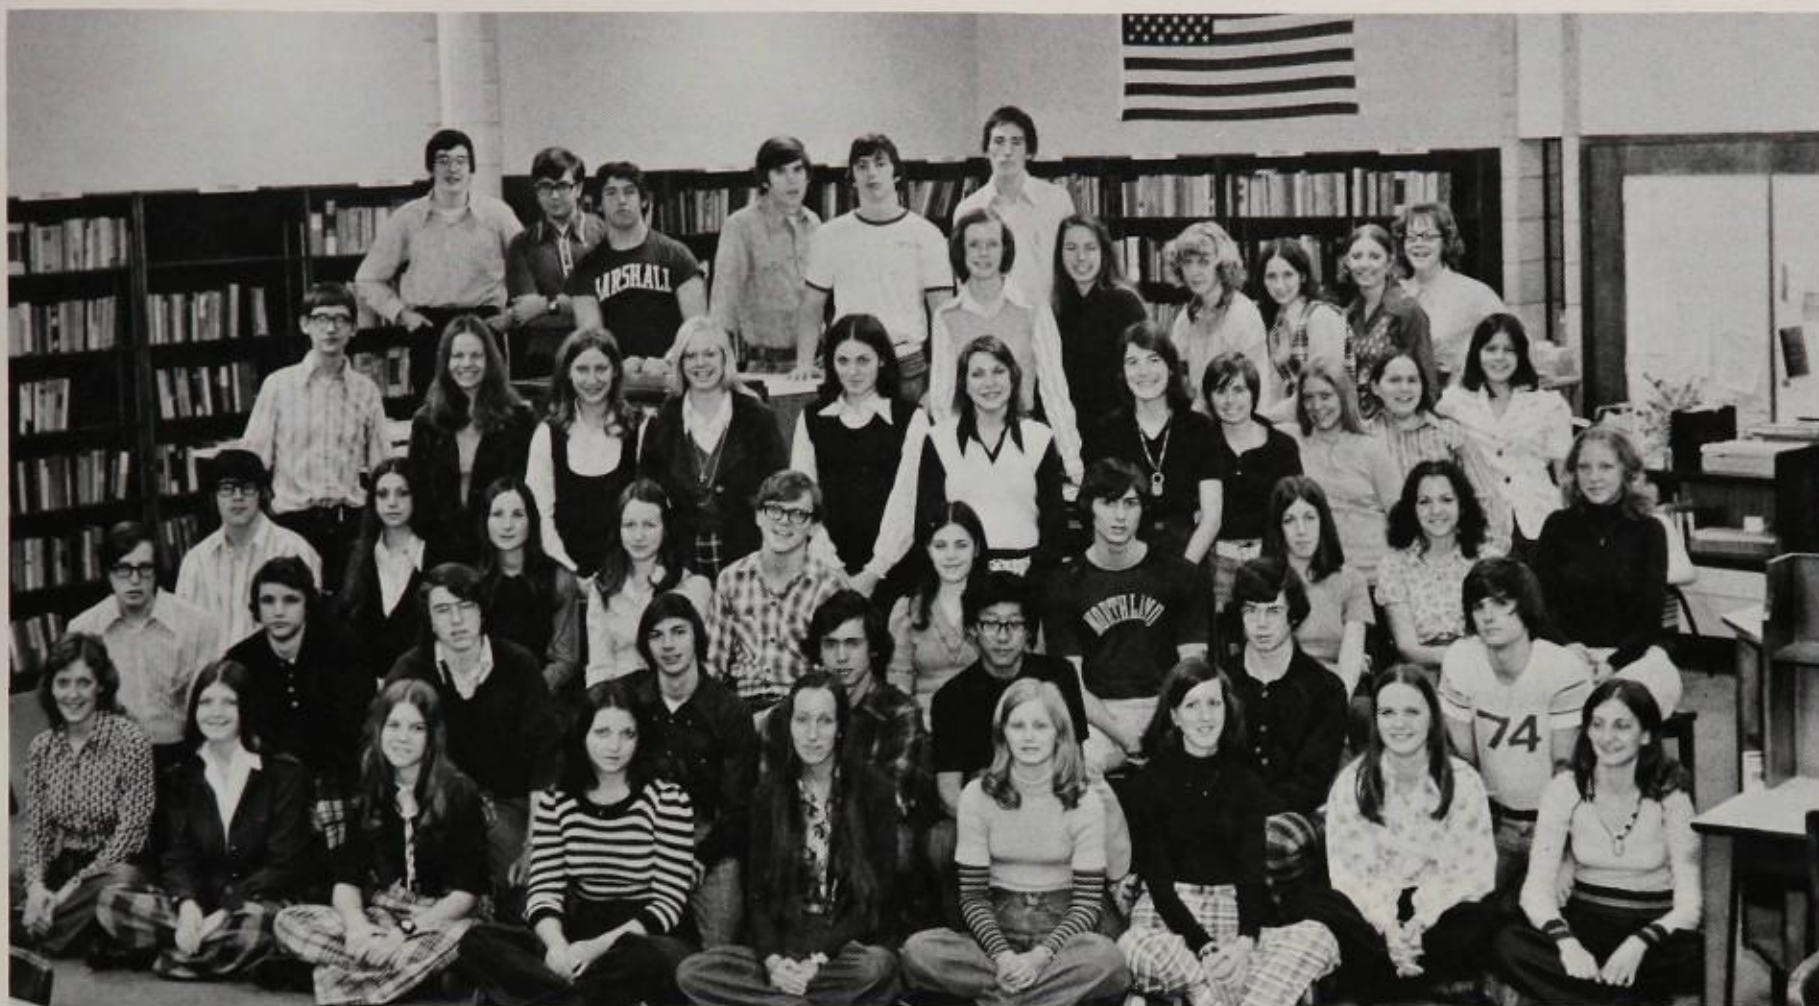

Music director Dwight Yoakum poses with members of the band: Leslie Conrad, Paul Matthews, Mark Moyer, and Lucas Kareklas.

The Miller (Jack Drudy) offers his daughter Millicent (Patti Jones) a hand in lifting the heavy burlap sacks.

The three queen finalists Gretchen Herr, Cindy Finnicum, and Nancy Shelton try to impress the King (Jeff Smalley) with their "unique" talents as the court looks on.

ACTIVE GROUP

The National Senior Honor Society became an active group this year. Some of the projects initiated were "Lounge Committee" for the new section of the building, money raising ideas, and better student relations. The president was Tom Adams, Vice-President was Rob Slye, and Secretary was Cindy Paulos. Advisor to the group was Mr. Zaayer.

Although the temperature was near 20 degrees, Marty Metzker is still able to play the Viking Fight Song!

CO EDITORS — Barb Watson, Tim Brooks.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF

The 1974 Valhalla Yearbook Staff was again this year under new leadership. Mrs. Vicki Bishop was the new advisor. Working hard to make sure all deadlines are met describes the job of every member of the organization. It is one thing to read a yearbook, and an entirely different thing to put it together. To all students and teachers who had to put up with some inconvenience because of the Yearbook Staff, we say, "Thank you for your patience."

SENIOR SECTION — Cindy Cunningham, Sue Conner.

SPORTS SECTION — Gary Anderson, Louise Vesco, Diane Vollmer.

GIRLS ARE LIBERATED!

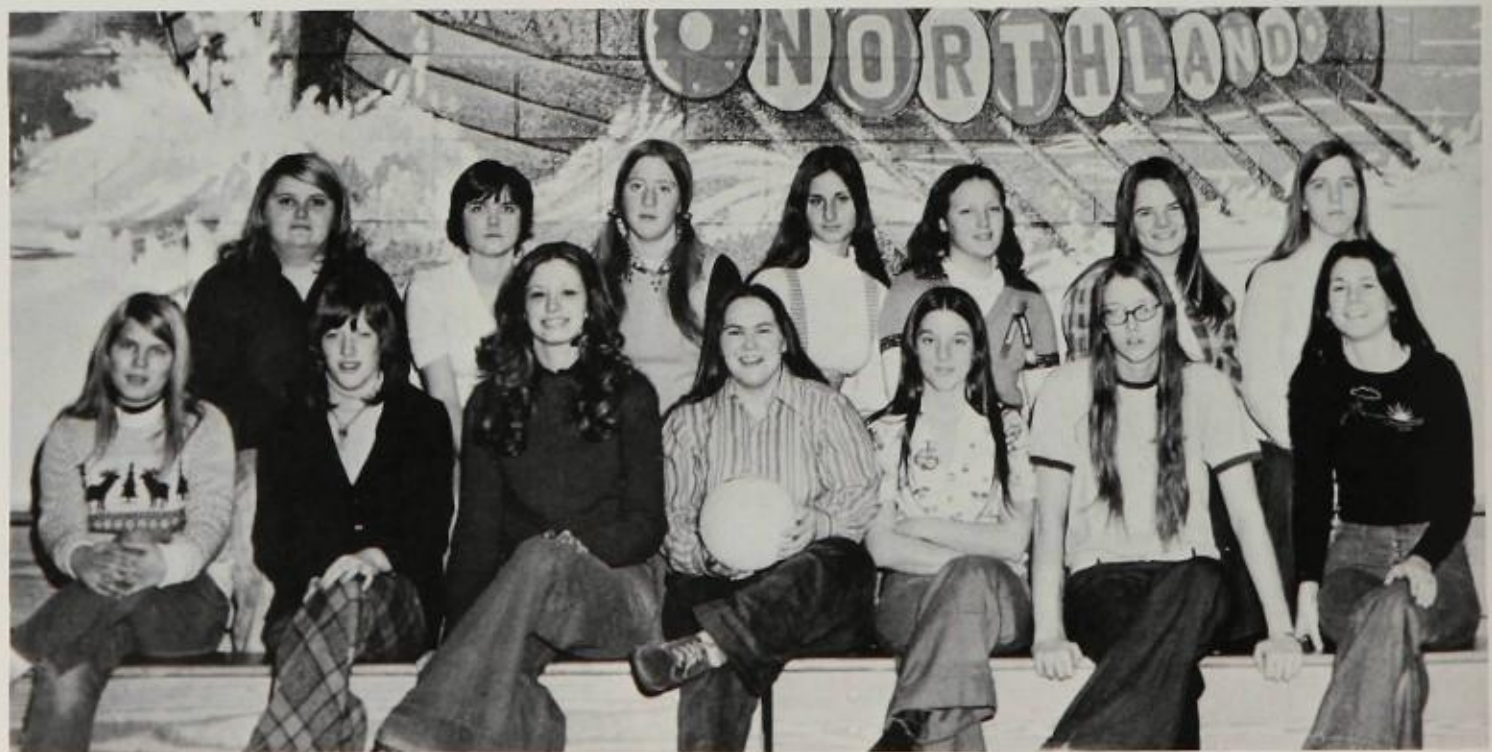

Girl's Athletic Association members reflected high spirits and good sportsmanship through participation in various athletics and money-making projects. The challenge of intramurals and inter-school play provided benefiting experiences in team work, sportsmanship, and development of skills. Horseback riding, camping, slumber parties, a jewelry sale, the interclass basketball tournament, and the annual banquet held at the end of the year for presentation of awards and the announcement of new officers were included in the activities.

Kathy Hunley soon finds out that not every high school tennis player is another Billie Jean King.

CHOIRS INVOLVE MANY

The Vocal Music Program at Northland is a strong one with more than three-hundred students participating in one or more of the eight different vocal groups. The Contest Choir performed at contest this year. The numbers used were "O Vos Omnes", "Nellie-Bly", and "Bitter for Sweet". The highlight of the year came for the Young Adults group when they sang for a military convention at North American Rockwell. The group also gave concerts for the school and at functions in the community.

TRADITION! . . . WITH A TOUCH OF TOMORROW

Northland High School as seen through the eyes of a non-student.

The action was exciting at Girl's Basketball games.

These students are caught in the act of playing cards when they ought to be studying.

A policeman is confronted with questions after an informative talk to a tenth grade History Class.

Drawing a year to an end is something that has been done in every yearbook. Is there one word that can tie it all together?

These Stage Crew workers complete

Erasing mistakes does nothing but frustrate this Northland student.

The unexpected often brings mixed reactions.

prop for the next production.

Sometimes, you just can't escape the inevitable.

John Finley and Joel Johansen work hard for their gig in Stage Band.

Rose Agresti doesn't mind sharing the lower part of her locker.

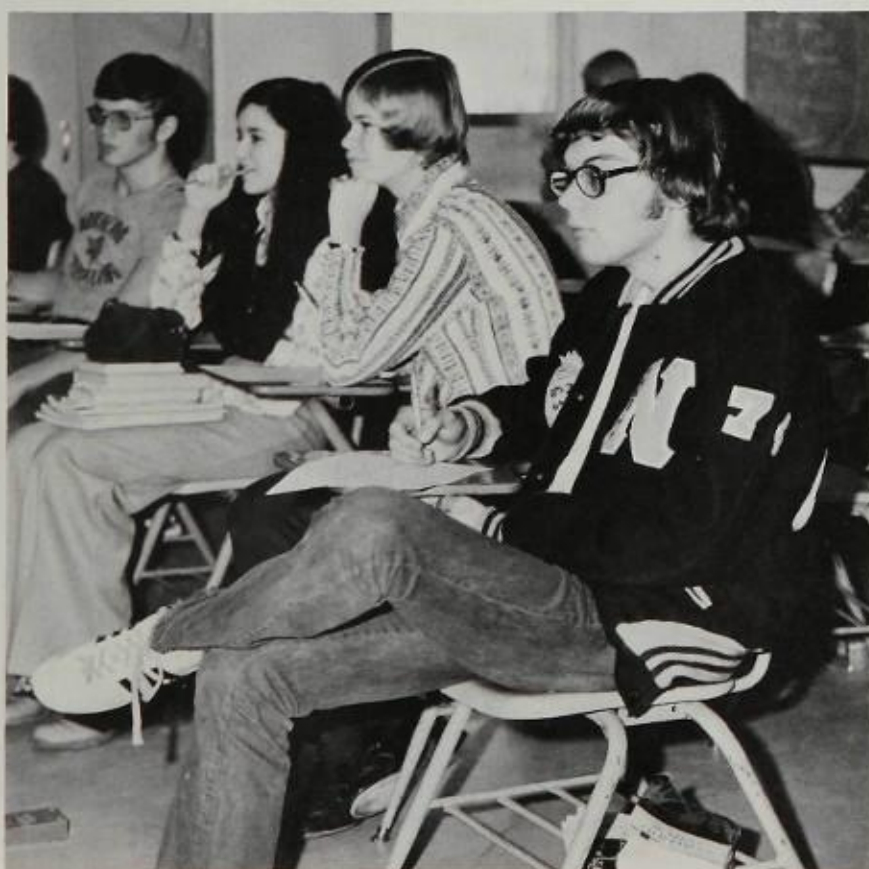

Onward ever, backward never.

Mr. Evans is caught off guard by this photographer.

Sue Ball and Jeff Powers practice one of their songs for the Spring musical, "My Fair Lady."

Seniors John O'Neil, Kim O'Brien and Lynn Nance pay close attention in their Latin Class.

Yes . . . that word is tradition. How is it then that each year is different at Northland High School?

It's tradition with a touch of tomorrow. We are influenced by the past and at the same time, changed by the future.

This Northland swimmer prepares to race.

Catching up on the latest gossip is a welcome relief after a whole period of Chemistry.

This is a typical scene from the calm and relaxed atmosphere of the attendance office.

Steve Wenger shows this wrestler from West who's number one!

Mr. Boseker catches up on the news during one of his free periods.

But what does the past do for our school today? It helps us maintain a high standard of achievement. It instills in us the desire to keep winning a tradition.

What used to be a wooded lawn, will soon be part of the new building.

Cold weather often made working conditions worse.

Another view of the construction area.

Union problems often stopped work.

Why should the future change our thinking? The future will keep us up to date, not letting us slip out of touch with reality.

These swimmers rest after their winning bout against Westerville.

The future and the hope of what is to come will make us strive to achieve what has not yet been attained.

Doug Smith takes the blame for a personal foul.

Mrs. Berry tells Mrs. Hamilton about the theme one of her students lost . . . her dog ate it.

No one ever knew whose ball it was.

Marty Metzker sneaks a bite of food before playing in Stage Band.

In this scene from Rumpelstiltskin, Patti Jones is crowned the new queen.

Together, the two work as a balance. We hope that one never dominates the other . . . Tradition With a Touch of Tomorrow.
